Top of the Pops

Recovered by the BFI are:

tx: 06.07.67 & 27.7.67. About 20 mins of each show exists. Both are hosted by Alan Freeman.

Both feature constant rolling as the original tape was very badly damaged. Includes rare items e.g. Floyd, Procol Harum, Turtles, Dave Davies. The tape came from Bill Harrison who stores, catalogues and repairs (mostly) audio material for various clients in the music industry. Ex-1" videotape.

Glen Campbell Music Show

tx: 04.05.75 with Helen Reddy, Carl Jackson, Bill Graham, Bob Felts and Dennis McCarthy. 16mm colour telerecording. (Already exists on colour V.T. in the library, but only as a thirty minute (repeat) version – this copy is around forty minutes.)

Out of Town

Majority of the final two seasons.

All came from cameraman Stan Bréhaut's off-air betamax collection before he died. The only clearly identifiable ones are the last two from the penultimate series (79/80), and the final one from the final series (80/81). Interestingly, in the final one of the penultimate series, Jack Hargreaves announces his intention to step down from broadcasting, and this was before the 1980 franchise loss announcement. Therefore, all the people who say that this series was killed off by the franchise loss are wrong – it was going to end anyway. At the end of the very final one (1981), the Southern announcer states at the end that this was the last ever 'new' edition, and that the last season on Southern (Autumn 1981) will see a short selection of re-runs. Located by Simon Winters.

Day By Day

Stan Bréhaut also taped on Betamax.

A missing 1981 Day by Day devoted to Out of Town, complete with David Bobin interviewing Jack Hargreaves in the studio. There is also a small (2 mins) segment of a missing Saturday Banana on his tapes. Finally, Stan taped about two hours of missing Day by Day film reports by elderly roving reporter Norman Goodland. These are important recovered material, they are all about disappearing Britain in 1980/81. Located by Simon Winters.

Material recovered ex-1500 cassettes from Paul Stewart Laing
